Great job answering the five critical thinking questions from Unit 5! You have a solid understanding of what was discussed in the unit about different types of animation and how they are protected. Thank you for writing in complete sentences and answering all parts to each question. First official assignment complete! :) Mrs. Dobro

NOTE: You will not get full credit for this assignment unless your Notifications are turned on for both you and your Guardian.

Most assignments will only allow three submissions, so make sure that you double check the assignment directions and grading rubric BEFORE submitting to ensure was completed correctly. Do not use the assignment submissions to communicate with your teacher - submitting an assignment containing a question or stating that you do not understand how to complete the assignment will count as your first submission. Email or call your teacher for help or with any questions before submitting your work, if needed!
